CEMETERY REPORT

Cemetery improvements carried out this year were mainly the partial restoration of outlying family cemeteries. The Ayers Cemetery, probably the finest family burying ground in town was reclaimed from the encroaching brush and a path was cut from the road to the cemetery. Stone walls surrounding some of the cemeteries were rebuilt and many slab markers were repaired.

Unfortunately our budget was overexpended. The 1971 season used up the last of the accumulated interest with which we have been financing the improvements in the past. The Commissioners feel it is the responsibility of the individual families to help maintain their lots. Therefore, we will ask each lot owner to establish a Perpetual Care Fund for lot maintenance or pay the equivalent which will be five dollars ($5.00) per year; minimum fund will be one hundred ($100.00) dollars and may be paid in small installments to the Trustee of Trust Funds.

Alice Thompson Memorial Fund was founded following the death of Mrs. Thompson in June 1971. For over twenty years she had given unstintingly of her time and effort to help the 4-H Children, the Sunday School children or children as individuals in this town. No parent was more loved than Alice Thompson. No Memorial could be more fitting than one to honor a 4-H boy or girl. Each year on Achievement Night The Alice Thompson Award will be presented to the boy or girl chosen by the 4-H leaders as most deserving. Contributions welcomed.

REPORT OF THE CANTERBURY FUND

Canterbury was fortunate during 1971 with no serious fires or other misfortunes which residents could not handle from their own resources and which would have been eligible under the terms of the trust indenture for grants from the Canterbury Fund.

The accounting for 1971 is as follows:

Balance in banks, December 31, 1970	$ 9,452.69
Interest on bank deposits	$ 448.29
Donation — Canterbury Fair	2,000.00
	$ 2,488.29
Balance in banks, December 31, 1971	$11,940.98

The trustees feel that everyone should be gratified that in the short period of six years the Fund has been built up to its present level while at the same time, extending grants of $911.91. They hope these conditions will continue so that the Fund will grow to a level at which it could be really effective if a neighbor meets unanticipated hardship. To accomplish this, we must have continued good fortune and wide-spread cooperation to insure the success of the annual fair.

If and when the Fund reaches a point at which its annual investment income is sufficient to meet normal needs, the trustees feel consideration should be given to amending Section 4, Purposes, of the trust indenture to permit grants for other reasons. The present provisions limit grants to Canterbury residents who are in financial need due to:

1. Destruction of their home or other hardship due to accident.

2. Poor health of any member of the immediate family.
3. Need for special education or treatment as the result of physical or mental handicaps of any member of the immediate family.
4. Need for higher education of worthy students.

Any such amendments would be subject to approval by the Internal Revenue Service to insure that the Fund will not be classified as a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

CANTERBURY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Canterbury Old Home Association at a joint meeting with the Canterbury Historical Society voted to dissolve the Old Home Association and turn all assets over to the Historical Society to help realize aims of the Society. The combined assets are almost sufficient to pay for a heating system for the Museum which is the next step in our restoration plan. Last year the boarding over the front palladian windows was removed and the windows were reglazed at a cost of forty-five (45.00) dollars and an improvement in the appearance of the building of 100%.

If any resident has not visited the Elizabeth Houser Museum we urge them to attend one of our meetings or ask any member for a tour of the building. We are sure your reaction will be as favorable as that of the eight hundred visitors we have had in the past year. Your membership dues of one dollar a year will help put our restoration fund over the top. Won't you join us?

If increased circulation figures are truly an indication of a recession, as State Librarian, Emil Allen, contends we are in the throes of a good one, for Elkins Public Library continues to circulate more books, despite difficulties with personnel changes and schedules. Libraries have always been a favorite source of entertainment, especially in hard times, and Elkins is no exception; come see just what inexpensive amusement and travel we have to offer!

The school program has been our big effort this year; we feel we must take store and determine just how successful we are in this program. A paid librarian plus at least three volunteers all day long one day a week should be able to service the children properly, yet we are not at all sure we are able to reach the pupils who need and desire help. Consequently, we are reevaluating the entire program.

Our paid school librarian, Anne Emerson, has worked out well; she gives some continuity to the ever changing volunteer faces, and is able to keep track of books and statistics for us, an increasingly difficult task. Even the advent of her daughter, Nancy, who now accompanies her to the library, was so well scheduled that Anne only missed a couple of weeks, those at the hectic anyway Christmas season!

$230 of our proposed budget increase for next year is simply that of the cost of living; as I am sure you are all well aware, the cost of oil, electricity, social security, supplies and general maintenance has simply skyrocketed. The increases are all supported by last year's actual costs, and we can only hope they are adequate.

Our only unsupported-by-actual-figures increase is for books; we ask for $90 more than last year, our first rise since 1965, and only an 11% one at that. Considering the fact that the cost of books has risen approximately 60% during this period, and that one of our staunchest Friends of the Library, and just incidentally contributor gratus of up-to-date fiction is no longer with us, your trustees feel it necessary to request this money. Our book committee has resorted to purchasing fiction, as well as some non-fiction, and lots of childrens' books in paperback to somewhat offset our reduced circumstances. Since many of our most faithful adult readers prefer NEW fiction, not available for some time in paperback, we feel it has been somewhat at these readers' expense that we have economized. Hence we ask your support in this matter.

As long as the Canterbury Fair continues and we are able to supplement our funds with book sales, we are able to make emergency repairs and that sort of thing without calling on the town for additional monies. However, be advised that one "off" year or one really big repair bill could change all this; your trustees feel we've all been both fortunate and lucky to be able to accomplish so much with so little — except your continuing help — the very backbone of Elkins Library.

Words of appreciation are due to many individuals who have helped out at the library during the past year. Under the guidance of Mildred Kopperl, the library has kept pace with demands made upon it. Mary Hutchins has spent countless hours in working behind the scenes, taking care of books and cards.

Thanks also go to the following individuals who have participated in the work of the library, Ann Emerson, Winifred Wingate, Catherine Brill, Beverly Hugron, Bertha Lee, Ruth Goodhue and Phyllis King. Also, thanks to any others whom I do not know.

The State Library Bookmobile has made four visits to Canterbury. A total of 1,915 books from the Bookmobile have been placed in the Elkins Library.

This is my first report as your Librarian. Since I started my duties here during the latter part of the year, I am just beginning to get better acquainted with the library and its wealth of excellent books. I am favorably impressed with the great volume of Juvenile books, and the important part they play in the lives of the school children.

REPORT OF THE CANTERBURY VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT, INC.

The Fire Department made 19 runs during the year of 1971; 3 chimney fires, 4 Mutual Aid, 6 brush fires (1½ Acre), 2 auto accidents, 1 dwelling, 2 car fires and 1 false alarm.

Always obtain a permit for any outside burning. Burning of grass or garden litter is dangerous. See your Warden first.

If you camp or picnic obtain a permit for open fires and put them dead out when leaving.

Instruct your children in the danger of the lighted match. A lighted match and dry grass or forest litter is a dangerous combination which leads to destructive loss and can lead to tragedy.

REPORT OF THE PLANNING BOARD CANTERBURY, N. H.

Completion of the long-range town plan and its publication in November, under the Title "A Plan for Tomorrow," represented the final result of over two and one-half years of work by more than sixty townspeople under the direction of the Planning Board. This report contains many recommendations designed to guide the development of the Town during a period of inevitable growth. Due primarily to a $1,000 grant from New Hampshire-Tomorrow and invaluable assistance from the Central New Hampshire Regional Planning Commission, the total cost of this plan to the Town was less than $400.

A plan of this sort is of no practical value unless its recommendations are studied and implemented. Accordingly, the Planning Board promptly (as of October 15th) adopted revised Subdivision Regulations, after the required public hearing, and drafted extensive amendments to the Zoning Ordinance which will be submitted to the voters for approval at the 1972 Town Meeting.

A number of applications for sub-division approval were considered, both before and after adoption of the new regulations in October. One application for a major sub-division (much of which had been sold before an application was filed) was considered and denied. This action subsequently led to court proceedings by the Town against the developer. The report of a Special Master appointed by the Superior Court found mostly in favor of the Town but a final decision was deferred pending appeal. A few minor subdivision applications were received and approved.

It is evident that the growth in population, coupled with a substantial increase in land assessment, will give rise to increasing pressure for sub-division approvals. It is important, therefore, that the Town control its development by the use of modern and effective sub-division and zoning regulations. In no other way can we determine our own destiny.

Respectfully submitted,

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CANTERBURY ZONING AND BUILDING ORDINANCE

To be Voted on Under Article II of the Warrant

Amend the Zoning and Building Ordinance by striking out in their entirety The Preamble, Articles I and II, Sections 1 and 2 of Article III and Articles IV through XIII, inclusive; renumbering remaining sections of Article III as Article VIII under the title Building Regulations and substitute the following new articles:

ARTICLE I

TITLE AND INTERPRETATION

This Ordinance shall be known as the Zoning and Building Ordinance of the Town of Canterbury, New Hampshire, referred to herein as this Ordinance, and is hereby adopted pursuant to the authority granted by the laws of the State of New Hampshire.

Interpretation and application of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed to be minimum requirements.

ARTICLE II

GENERAL PROVISIONS

A. Required Conformance

No building, except accessory buildings and temporary buildings authorized by permit during construction of permanent buildings, shall be occupied, erected, moved or altered to the extent of increasing its interior floor area by more than one hundred square feet, and no land shall be subdivided unless in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance and subdivision regulations of the Town of Canterbury.

B. Obnoxious Uses

Land shall not be used in any manner that is noxious, offensive, or detrimental to the public or to owners or occupants of adjacent property or prejudicial to the general welfare of the community. A public hearing by the Board of Adjustment is required before such use is prohibited under this provision.

C. Repair or Removal of Damaged and Unsafe Structures

No owner or occupant of land in Canterbury shall permit fire or other ruins to be left, but within one year shall remove or refill the same to clear ground level, or shall repair, rebuild or replace the structure in conformance with the terms of this Ordinance.

D. Sanitary Protection

All sanitary systems within and serving dwellings and buildings shall be constructed and maintained in accordance with existing and amended regulations of the New Hampshire Water Supply and Pollution Control Commission. The use of privys, outhouses, or cesspools shall be prohibited except as a non-conforming use as provided for in Article IV.

E. Temporary Structures

Temporary structures used in conjunction with construction work shall be permitted only during the period that the construction work is in progress and upon issuance of the appropriate permit by the Selectmen. Nothing in this Ordinance shall prevent a property owner from being the builder, or prevent the property owner and his family from living in the structure being built during construction for a period of one year even though the building does not conform to all the building regulations prior to completion, except those regulations pertaining to septic tanks and sewerage.

F. Home Occupation

Any home occupation such as an art studio, hair-dressing, woodworking or nursery school, or the professional office of a physician, lawyer, shall be permitted as an exception approved by the Board of Adjustment as an accessory use if it complies with the requirements of this Section as defined below.

1. The home occupation shall be carried on by a member of the family residing in the dwelling unit only. Two employees who are not part of the family are permitted.
2. The primary activities of a home occupation shall be carried on wholly within the principal or accessory structure.

G. Signs

Advertising signs shall be limited to on-site locations only and to one per business enterprise except for temporary signs advertising the sale of agricultural products. All signs shall be limited to twenty (20) square feet of area and no signs shall endanger driving on the public roads, either by reason of placement or by excessive glare in signs illuminated at night. On-site signs attached to buildings, solely for the purpose of identifying the owner or occupant of an industrial or commercial building are permitted as a special exception provided that the length of such sign shall not exceed one-half that of the building. The size and number of signs located on a property in the Commercial-Industrial district may be increased as a special exception by the Board of Adjustment.

H. Height Regulation

A structure for any use in Canterbury shall not exceed forty feet in height above the top of its foundation. Said limitation shall not apply to flagpoles, antenna structures, silos, steeples on public buildings, or when otherwise authorized by the Zoning Board of Adjustment in cases where it is consistent with the policies of the Comprehensive Plan.

I. Large Scale Recreational Use

Intense or large scale uses of land for seasonal, permanent or temporary recreational purposes which will be for lease, rent, or general admission and/or use of the public now or in the future, and intending to serve more than 200 people at any one time, shall be required to apply for a use permit from the Board of Selectmen at least 30 days prior to commencing such use.

J. Mobile Homes and Travel Trailers

Mobile homes are permitted only in mobile home parks as provided for in this Ordinance. Individual mobile homes are permitted only as temporary residential or business structures during times of construction of permanent residential or business building and upon receipt of the appropriate permit from the Selectmen. Such a permit shall be valid for a period of one year and is non-transferable. Occupancy of travel trailers is permitted in mobile home parks as provided for in this Ordinance as a seasonal use. Travel trailer parks are permitted by special exception and only in licensed recreational areas upon written approval of the Board of Selectmen after a public hearing.

K. Buildings in Floodway

In any district, no building shall be erected in a floodway, unless the first floor elevation is higher than the highest flood recorded, unless such flood elevation shall have been reduced by construction of dams or other means of flood control.

CONSERVATION COMMISSION, 1971 REPORT

Your Conservation Commission worked on several projects in 1971 which you had indicated to be of importance to the town.

First, we held a public meeting to report the results of the mailed questionnaire sent to you in December, 1970.

Second, with the help of the Canterbury Boy Scouts, shrubbery and tree seedlings were planted at Maple Grove Cemetery. Also the trees and young growth at the Worsted Church site were thinned to improve the appearance of that area.

Third, there were many unsightly, old, abandoned cars scattered around the town. Your Commission, with the cooperation of the Selectmen, arranged for Ray Collette to pick up and dispose of these cars. 33 were removed.

Fourth, the need for a public swimming area for Canterbury was expressed very strongly in your replies to our questionnaire. We are studying possible sites and assistance for this project.

We are also studying several parcels of land which have been offered to the town or which would be valuable to the town for multiple use conservation purposes.

HISTORY OF THE CANTERBURY SCHOOL DISTRICT

By Catherine Dickson

Read into the official record of the final Canterbury School District meeting by Nancy Lilly.

On July 1st, the Canterbury School District and the Belmont School District will join to form the Shaker Regional School District and the Canterbury School District, established in 1784, will cease to exist. Let us pause to reflect upon the history of that District.

Reverend James Scales was the first minister to serve in Canterbury. From 1742 to 1757 he ministered to the spiritual needs of the town. It was also his duty to serve as physician to the sick and educator to the young; teaching within the fort or in private homes as the opportunity presented itself.

Provincial law enacted prior to the date of incorporation was explicit in its requirements; "every town having the number of 50 householders shall be constantly provided of a schoolmaster. Some discreet person of good conversation well instructed in the tongue shall be procured. Every such schoolmaster shall be suitably encouraged and paid by the inhabitants." Towns numbering 100 householders were required to provide a grammar school. The law was written with a loophole in that it would not be enforced until danger of Indian raids was over.

The first action in Canterbury to comply with the law was in 1758 when it was voted to appropriate $200 old tenor for educating the children of the town. It is to be noted that there was no discrimination as to sex — the townspeople feeling that girls as well as boys should be granted the advantages of an education.

The early classrooms were located in any home having available space, frequently barn noises and odors made scholastic accomplishment a real achievement for both teacher and pupils.

Books were rare; children were taught by rote. The few books available were handed down from one generation to the next and no two students were likely to have the same text. Classes were held 6 days a week. The Shakers were leaders in educational advances and set many of their lessons to music. Sister Marguerite Frost, who died last week, sang some of the songs for a visitor last summer. One song named the origin, tributaries and termination of the major rivers east of the Mississippi. Other songs named the bones of the body, or the muscles, or the nervous system. It was not until 1890 that the town was made responsible for providing books. Board and room was considered part of the schoolmaster's pay. He lived at various homes and took his chances as to the living quarters assigned to him. By 1765, school was held for two months in the summer and two months in the winter. All children from 4 to 20 not needed at home attended. By 1767, the hiring of women teachers was authorized.

The first schoolhouse was built in 1781. It is believed to have been a log building located on Kimball's Corner — a short distance north of the first log church. This was a period of rapid growth in Canterbury. To make education available to all children in the 45 square mile area of the town, it was necessary to divide the town into 6 districts, and in 1794, a school was built in each district at a total cost of $250.00. By 1814, three additional districts were added. Some of the original schools had been rebuilt three times because of fires. The nine original districts were as follows: 1. Blanchard, 2. West Road, 3. Palletborough, 4. Baptist, 5. Hackleborough, 6. Uplands, 7. Center, 8. Shakers, 9. Ingalls.

Eventually District #2 was sub-divided to become: 2. West Road, 10. Depot, 11. Upper Intervale, and 12. Carter.

By 1833, Canterbury had reached its peak. The school census was up to 500 children in twelve schools. The school of this era were the social centers of the district. Spelling Bees, Box Socials, Shoral singing, Musicals and public speaking contests provided entertainment for young and old alike.

With the opening of the west for homesteading, and the discovery of gold in California, the young people of Canterbury left the family farms to make their fortunes in every state west of the Mississippi. Present day leaders throughout the west trace their ancestry back to founding families of Canterbury. The move away from the farm continued for 100 years. In 1878, a law was passed permitting the closing of schools with less than 12 pupils, and the town was to pay transportation to the newly assigned district. By 1943, there was a total census of 94 pupils where once there had been 500.

Following World War Two, there was a gradual return to Canterbury; first by young couples who had grown up here, then by more and more families employed in surrounding towns who found the comparatively low cost homes and the small, closely knit community to their liking. Gradually the school census increased. Vacant schoolhouses had been sold and remodeled into homes. Colleges were training teachers to teach single grades, not 8 or 9. The State Board of Education began making ever-increasing demands in an effort to elevate educational standards throughout the state. Education in Canterbury was at a cross roads. Which way to turn,

First they tried dividing the schools into 4-grade schools. This was clearly a stop-gap measure. After a few years a study group was formed to study the possibilities of a central school. Battle lines were drawn the likes of which had not been seen since the Great Library Controversy of the early 1920's. Never had the friendly town been subjected to such violent feelings. After all was said and done; after special meetings, injunctions and more special meetings, the townspeople finally voted to build a school and bond the town to the full extent of the borrowing capacity. When the bids were returned, they exceeded the money available by 50 percent. Undaunted, the committee decided to utilize the abilities of willing townspeople, act as their own contractor, build the school, and put on the final touches when financially able to do so. Land, money and services were freely given. Construction started in the spring of 1956. Various organizations undertook special projects. Bake sales, auctions, suppers, card parties and rummage sales accomplished two things — first, they made money for the needy cause, and secondly they publicized the plight of the town and the indomitable spirit of the townspeople. A charitable foundation gave financial assistance, President Eisenhower sent a personal commendation, and the Canterbury Schoolhouse Tale was told to much acclaim at an International Conference in Brazil.

September 1956 brought to life the Toonerville Trolley Cartoon. One window of each room had a black stovepipe sticking out of it belching smoke as the trusty wood stoves were used until the heating system could be completed. While children studied, their mothers were up on ladders painting walls and windows inside and out. Fathers worked nights and weekends wiring, installing ducts, building bookshelves or doing anything else they could to help. Finishing one room at a time, all five rooms were occupied by Columbus Day, and the One Room School was a thing of the past.

The children of this era were well aware of the work and sacrifices made on their behalf. At Christmas every volunteer worker received a picture of the proud student body posed in front of the school; a note of thanks on each picture. A simple gesture that made all the hours of work worthwhile.

For 8 years, Canterbury School District could concentrate on completing the building it was rapidly outgrowing. Our High School census was increasing rapidly. Surrounding towns had their own problems and could no longer take Canterbury students. From 1902, when the law was passed requiring towns to provide High School facilities, until 1965, the town tuitioned the students to the high school of their choice. In that time 145 pupils chose to attend Penacook High School; 101 attended Concord High School; 24 attended Tilton-Northfield and 50 chose a wide range of public and private schools.

Between 1963 and the present day, 5 study groups have spent countless hours trying to find a solution to our high school problem. Now, after many false starts and dashed hopes we have arrived at a solution. The history of education in the Canterbury School District has been one of hard fought progress. However, once the decision to advance has been made, public support has always been forthcoming.

In July, when the Shaker Regional School District is formed, the people of Canterbury will live up to their reputation of personal involvement to work with the people of Belmont and make our district worthy of the Town of Belmont, worthy of the Town of Canterbury, and especially worthy of the name SHAKER REGIONAL.

REPORT OF CANTERBURY SCHOOL BOARD

1970-71 School Year

On July 1, 1971, the Canterbury School District became an entity of history, after a 187-year existence.

That was the effective date of the Shaker Regional School District that had been authorized by the school district voters of Canterbury and Belmont on February 6, 1971.

The last meeting of the Canterbury School District was held March 6, 1971, and the new cooperative was officially organized at a joint meeting with Belmont voters on May 8 of the same year.

The historic move for Canterbury ended a period of activity of some eight years duration which saw district's primary focus of attention on securing permanent educational facilities for its secondary school students.

The Canterbury School Board would like the record to show its deepest appreciation to all citizens and staff members who responded to responsibilities that were far above the normal course of expectancy during these difficult times. Those of us who were actively involved in attempts to resolve these problems are fully aware that no such accomplishments would have been possible without the assistance of the more than 50 persons who took part in the number of preceeding studies, who served on the school's building committee, who served on the Board itself, and in other elective offices.

Canterbury's Grade 1-8 pupils continued to attend Canterbury School during the 1971-72 school year, with Grades 1-6 expected to remain in Canterbury, and grades 7-12 to attend Belmont Junior-Senior High School on completion of building expansion program in Belmont at the start of the 1972-73 school year.

Final records of the financial activities, and of the school district meetings relating to the formation of the Shaker Regional School District, will be found in the first annual report of the new district.
